Hello gurls, this is Miss Major.

I’m so glad you’re coming here for a weekend retreat. I want you to know that I love you and I want you to take care, have a great time, enjoy the land and property, and use this time to rest, collect yourself, search your soul, figure out where you’re going, and then go back home and bring whatever it is into fruition.

Below you will find out more about the weekend.

Be safe and stay strong
love,
Miss Major

"EMBRACE THE BRICK"

Who we are:
House of gg :: tilifi is Miss Major's legacy project and is directed by her heart and vision. We own and operate a beautiful retreat oasis in Little Rock, Arkansas.

What we do:
We host all-expense paid weekend retreats for black trans people (especially women) from the South, to come relax, shake off any BS you’ve been dealing with, rest, and just get some time off to reset and woosa.
How much does it cost?
Nothing!
We will cover your transportation, lodging, and food.

What will I eat?
We provide dinner on Friday, lunch and dinner on Saturday and brunch on Sunday.

Groceries are available at the guest house for you to make your own breakfast on Saturday and to eat snacks between meals.

Where are you located?
We are located in the middle of Little Rock, in a combined residential/commercial area, 16 minutes from the LIT airport. The oasis feels private and tranquil despite being on a major road. The neighborhood is quiet, laid-back, racially diverse and consists of a few quiet streets sandwiched between some busy shopping areas.
Where will I stay?
We have a guest house with three small bedrooms, a living room, an attached kitchen, and a laundry room.

The first bedroom has a full sized bed.

The second bedroom has two full sized beds.

The third bedroom has a queen sized bed and an attached bathroom and shower. There is a pull-out couch in the living room.

What if I forget to bring something?
We are within walking distance of a lot of stores and restaurants (grocery stores, beauty supply, pharmacies, Ross and Burlington, Dollar Tree etc.).

A staff member will be available to drive you around if needed as well.
What will I do while I’m there?
It is Miss Major’s wish that you just kick back and relax and restore yourself. There are no planned activities other than shared dinners, and no requirements on your time. There is an in-ground pool and a hot tub.

What’s Little Rock like?
- Little Rock is situated on the banks of the Arkansas river, with the Ouachita mountains to the West and the flatlands of the Mississippi to the east.
- We enjoy four seasons. Winters are short and can be very cold and wet (and occasionally snowy). Summers are very hot and humid (it's hot May thru Sept). It can rain anytime throughout the year.

What should I pack?
It depends on what time of year you come, but here's some general ideas
- Something to swim in
- Light clothing
- Toiletries
- Medications
- Phone charger
- Books or magazines
- Pajamas or comfortable clothes to lounge around in
- Sandals, house shoes, etc
- Sun hat
- Sunscreen
What should I know if I have accessibility needs?
It is our wish for tilifi to be as accessible as possible for all our guests and staff. Please let us know if you need other accommodations, and we will provide them whenever possible.

Currently, we have:

- Both houses and the grounds are wheelchair accessible by private sidewalks and ramps.
- An SUV with a wheelchair lift in the back.
- A roll in curbless shower in the Guest House and outdoors by the pool.
- Bathroom vanity accommodates a wheelchair and has mirrors that can go lower for people seated and higher for taller people.
- Manual and motorized wheelchairs, powerchairs, and scooters.

Are there any rules I need to know about?

- House of gg::tilifi strives to be a drama-free space. It's about loving yourself and each other, so that we ask that people lead with their hearts and leave any drama at the door.

Covid Protocols:
We require proof of full vaccination and booster for all guests and staff. Additionally, we require a negative covid test before traveling to House of gg. We will send you a rapid test in the mail to take the morning before you travel.
